Letter from the President

Dear Volunteers,

Happy summer, hope you are keeping cool! Thank you to the volunteers who helped us at Seymour Day. We had some very nice baskets that we raffled off with very happy winners. It turned out to be a nice day.

Our website is coming along and should be up and running by the end of July. The volunteer survey is still in the works. And lastly, look for us on CT Style sometime in August; we will keep you posted when we receive the date. Have a safe summer.

God Bless,
James Fedak Jr

Special Guest at our August Dinner

Jerry Rasmussen is a folk and gospel singer and songwriter, and an award-winning Christian author.

Jerry began performing at the Gaslight Café in Greenwich Village in the early '60's, when Bob Dylan, Dave Van Ronk, Peter, Paul and Mary, John Sebastian and Richie Havens were starting their careers. He has shared the stage with Pete Seeger, and the Highwaymen, and performed in the first Hootenanny at Town Hall with John Hammond, Jr. He has been compared to Garrison Keillor and his songs have been featured on Prairie Home Companion. He has performed in concerts and folk festivals from Massachusetts to Missouri and did a concert for PBS as part of the In the Tradition series. His songs have appeared in folk journals and magazines, including Sing Out! magazine and they have been recorded by more than twenty other musicians.
